

Internship Expectations

In addition to specific duties related to internship, Interns at Church at the Oaks must meet or exceed the following expectations at all times:

- Maintain a healthy and vibrant walk with Jesus
- Remain above reproach in all areas of life and interaction with others (social media, alcohol, significant others, etc.)
- Model an attitude of servanthood to the body
- Remain a learner under the continual guidance and encouragement of Oaks Staff
- Faithfully attend Church at the Oaks services
- Faithfully attend all internship meetings
- Give of time and resources each week
- If unable to fulfill duties in a given week due to travel, illness, or unforeseen circumstance, notify supervisor so leadership position will not go unfilled during absence as soon as possible
- Submit to and be supportive of church leadership and policy. Any questions or concerns related to leadership or policy issues will be handled in private with supervisor.
- Maintain high Christian standards in conduct, character, and conversation. Carefully examine personal habits and activities in order to make sure life is consistent with the teaching of Church at the Oaks.
- Complete all tasks, assigned reading, and projects assigned by staff in a timely manner.
- Observe proper office etiquette and behave in a professional manner when representing Church at the Oaks.
- Provide insight, give input, and take initiative.